

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East, organized by the American Studies Association, will be held at the University of California, San Diego, from October 15-17, 1982. The conference will focus on the history of the Middle East from the late Ottoman period to the present. The program includes a keynote address by Professor Bernard Lewis, a panel discussion on the role of the United States in the Middle East, and a roundtable discussion on the future of the region. The conference is open to all interested scholars and students.

The conference is organized by the American Studies Association, the Middle East Studies Association, and the Middle East Studies Center at the University of California, San Diego. The conference is supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the University of California, San Diego. The conference is a joint effort of the American Studies Association, the Middle East Studies Association, and the Middle East Studies Center at the University of California, San Diego.

The conference is a major event in the field of Middle East studies. It provides an opportunity for scholars to present their research and to discuss it with other experts in the field. The conference is also a valuable opportunity for students to learn from the work of leading scholars in the field. The conference is a must for anyone interested in the history of the Middle East.
