

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East is a unique opportunity for scholars from around the world to discuss the latest research on the region's past. The conference will focus on the period from the late Ottoman Empire to the present day, with a particular emphasis on the role of the British and the United States in the region's development.

The conference will be held in London, UK, from 15-19 September 2024. The conference is organized by the British Middle East Studies Association (BMESA) in conjunction with the Middle East Studies Association (MESA).

The conference will feature a series of plenary sessions, keynote addresses, and a variety of panels and workshops. The plenary sessions will be held in the evening, and will provide an excellent opportunity for scholars to discuss their research and to meet with other participants. The keynote addresses will be given by leading experts in the field, and will provide a valuable overview of the current state of research on the history of the Middle East. The panels and workshops will cover a wide range of topics, including the Ottoman Empire, the British Mandate, the Arab Revolt, the establishment of the State of Israel, and the Arab-Israeli conflict.

The conference is open to all scholars, regardless of their nationality or institutional affiliation. The conference fee is £100, which includes registration, access to the conference materials, and a dinner on the first evening. The conference is a must-attend event for anyone interested in the history of the Middle East.
