

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL LAW

The International Conference on International Law, organized by the International Law Association (ILA), is a biennial gathering of legal scholars and practitioners from around the world. The conference provides a unique opportunity for the exchange of ideas and the advancement of international law. The 2024 conference will be held in London, United Kingdom, from September 15-20, 2024. The theme of the conference is "International Law in a Globalized World".

The conference will feature a series of plenary sessions, panel discussions, and roundtables. The plenary sessions will be held in the evening and will feature keynote addresses by leading international law experts. The panel discussions and roundtables will be held during the day and will focus on specific areas of international law. The conference will also include a series of workshops and seminars for students and young professionals.

The conference is open to all who are interested in international law. There is no charge for registration. The conference is held in conjunction with the International Law Association's annual meeting. The International Law Association is a non-governmental organization that promotes the development and teaching of international law. The association has over 100 national branches and a membership of over 10,000 individuals. The conference is a key event in the association's calendar and is attended by hundreds of participants from over 100 countries.
