

STATEMENT OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEVELOPMENT

The National Council for Human Rights and Development, established by the National Council of Ministers, is pleased to announce the formation of the National Council for Human Rights and Development. The Council is a permanent body that will monitor and promote human rights and development in the State. The Council will be composed of representatives from the various sectors of society, including the government, the private sector, and civil society. The Council will be headed by the Prime Minister and will have a Secretary General. The Council will be responsible for the following tasks:

1. To monitor and promote human rights and development in the State.

2. To advise the Government on human rights and development issues.

3. To coordinate the activities of the various human rights and development organizations in the State.

4. To conduct research and publish reports on human rights and development issues.

The Council will be established by a Decree of the President of the State. The Council will be a permanent body and will have the right to request information from the Government and to conduct investigations into human rights and development issues. The Council will be a high-level body and will be directly accountable to the President of the State.

The Council will be a permanent body and will have the right to request information from the Government and to conduct investigations into human rights and development issues. The Council will be a high-level body and will be directly accountable to the President of the State.

The Council will be a permanent body and will have the right to request information from the Government and to conduct investigations into human rights and development issues. The Council will be a high-level body and will be directly accountable to the President of the State.

The Council will be a permanent body and will have the right to request information from the Government and to conduct investigations into human rights and development issues. The Council will be a high-level body and will be directly accountable to the President of the State.

The Council will be a permanent body and will have the right to request information from the Government and to conduct investigations into human rights and development issues. The Council will be a high-level body and will be directly accountable to the President of the State.

