INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN WEST

The American West has long been a source of inspiration and fascination for people around the world. This conference will explore the history of the American West from a global perspective, examining the role of the West in the development of the United States and its impact on the world.

The conference will feature a series of panels and presentations that will explore the history of the American West from a variety of perspectives. The panels will include:

• The West and the World: A Global Perspective
• The West and the Environment
• The West and the Economy
• The West and the Culture

The conference will also feature a series of keynote presentations by leading scholars in the field. The keynote presentations will include:

• The West and the World: A Global Perspective
• The West and the Environment
• The West and the Economy
• The West and the Culture

The conference will be held at the University of California, Los Angeles, from October 15-19, 2018. The conference is open to all who are interested in the history of the American West.

For more information, please contact the conference organizers at west@ucla.edu.

The conference is a joint effort of the Center for the Study of the American West and the Center for the Study of the Pacific West at the University of California, Los Angeles.
