INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East is a unique opportunity for scholars from all over the world to meet and discuss the latest research in the field. The conference will be held in a beautiful location and will feature a variety of activities, including lectures, panels, and round-table discussions.

The conference is organized by the Middle East Studies Association (MESA) and the American Historical Association (AHA). It is a joint effort to bring together scholars from different disciplines and backgrounds to share their knowledge and insights.

The conference will focus on the history of the Middle East from the late Ottoman period to the present. It will cover a wide range of topics, including political, social, and cultural history. The conference is open to all scholars, regardless of their nationality or affiliation. It is a great opportunity for young scholars to present their work and receive feedback from their peers.
