A diagram consisting of three rows of empty rectangular boxes. The top row contains 10 boxes. The middle row contains 1 box on the far left and 9 boxes to its right. The bottom row contains 5 boxes on the far left and 5 boxes to its right. This visual representation is used to illustrate the concept of a sequence of 20 elements, where the first element is isolated and the remaining 19 elements are grouped into three distinct clusters of 10, 9, and 10 elements respectively.
