Diagram illustrating the total number of empty rectangles in the grid. The grid is organized into four main horizontal sections. The first section contains 10 rectangles. The second section contains 8 rectangles. The third section contains 4 rectangles. The fourth section contains 8 rectangles. Below the first section, there are 6 empty rectangles. Below the second section, there are 6 empty rectangles. Below the third section, there are 4 empty rectangles. Below the fourth section, there are 6 empty rectangles. This visual representation helps in calculating the total count of empty rectangles.
