INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The conference is organized by the Middle East Studies Association (MESA) in cooperation with the American Historical Association (AHA) and the American Political Science Association (APSA). The conference will be held in Jerusalem, Israel, from December 15-19, 2010. The theme of the conference is "The Middle East in the Twentieth Century: A Re-examination".

The conference will feature a series of panels, workshops, and keynote addresses. The panels will cover a wide range of topics, including the political, social, and economic history of the Middle East, as well as the role of the United States and other major powers. The workshops will provide an opportunity for scholars to present their research in a more informal setting. The keynote addresses will be given by leading experts in the field. The conference will also include a field trip to the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

The conference is open to all scholars and students interested in the history of the Middle East. Registration fees are available for students and those with limited financial resources. The conference is held in English.
