

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN WEST

The American West has long been a source of fascination and inspiration for people around the world. This conference will explore the history of the American West from a global perspective, examining the ways in which the West has been shaped by and has shaped the world.

The conference will feature a variety of presentations, including keynote addresses, panel discussions, and individual papers. We will also have a social program and a book fair. The conference is open to all who are interested in the history of the American West.

The conference will be held at the University of California, Los Angeles, from October 15-19, 2024. The conference is organized by the American West Center at UCLA. For more information, please contact the conference organizers at westcenter@ucla.edu.

The conference is a free event, but there is a registration fee. The fee covers the conference materials, a meal, and access to the social program. The fee is $100 for individuals and $200 for institutions.

For more information, please visit the conference website at www.westcenter.org/conference. We look forward to your participation in this exciting event.

The conference is a unique opportunity to learn from leading scholars in the field of American West history. We will have the chance to hear from some of the most respected voices in the field, and to engage in meaningful discussions with them.

The conference is also a great opportunity to meet and network with other scholars and students who are interested in the American West. We will have a social program and a book fair, which will provide a great opportunity to connect with others in the field.

We hope you will join us for this exciting event. For more information, please contact the conference organizers at westcenter@ucla.edu.
