

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ECONOMIC REFORMS - 1992 CONFERENCE REPORT

The International Conference on Economic Reforms was held in Washington, D.C., from October 15-17, 1992. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank. The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank. The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The conference was organized by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The main theme of the conference was the role of the state in economic reform. The conference was attended by representatives from over 50 countries, including the United States, the European Community, and the World Bank.

□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□