

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The International Conference on the History of the Middle East is a unique opportunity for scholars from around the world to discuss the latest research on the region's past. The conference will focus on the period from the late Ottoman Empire to the present day, with a particular emphasis on the role of the British Empire in the region's development.

The conference will be held in London, UK, from 15-19 September 2024. The programme includes keynote speeches, panel discussions, and individual presentations. The conference is open to all scholars, regardless of their institutional affiliation.

The conference is organized by the British Middle East Studies Association (BMESEA) in partnership with the Middle East Studies Centre at the University of Cambridge. The conference is free of charge for all participants.

For more information, please visit the conference website at www.bmeSEA.org.uk/mee2024. The conference is a great opportunity to meet and discuss with other scholars in the field. We look forward to your participation.
