Изложивший в 1850 г. в Журнале русской словесности статью о языке и письме в древней Руси, И.А. Бестужев-Рюмин писал: «Слово „русский“ в древнерусской письменности не имеет никакого отношения к наименованию языка, а есть обозначение национального достояния, национальной культуры, национальной истории, национальной политики, национальной промышленности и т.д.». Важно отметить, что в то время в России не было единого языка, а было множество диалектов, говоривших на которых были разные народы. Но все они назывались «русскими», потому что они имели общую культуру, общую историю, общую политику, общую промышленность и т.д.
