

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS UNDER SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROTECTION

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1978 to 1981. It was organized by the International Commission on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, which was established by the United Nations General Assembly in 1975.

The Conference was the first of a series of international conferences organized by the Commission. It was followed by the International Conference on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, held in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1982.

The Commission was established by the United Nations General Assembly in 1975. It was the first of a series of international commissions established by the United Nations. The Commission's mandate was to study and report on the situation of persons under special administrative protection in various countries.

The Commission's work was carried out through a series of international conferences. The first conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1978. It was followed by the International Conference on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, held in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1982. The Commission's work was also carried out through a series of reports and studies.

The Commission's work was carried out through a series of international conferences. The first conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1978. It was followed by the International Conference on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, held in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1982. The Commission's work was also carried out through a series of reports and studies.

