Unemployment (or joblessness) occurs when people are without work and actively seeking work." The Bureau of Labour Statistics (BLS) defines unemployment as "people who are without work, are available to accept a job, and are actively seeking work." Unemployment is a state of being without work, but it is not the same as being out of work. Being out of work is a broader term that includes people who are not actively seeking work, such as those who are on a leave of absence, those who are on a sabbatical, or those who are retired. Unemployment is a specific type of joblessness that is characterized by the fact that the person is actively seeking work.
