

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS AND PROPERTY

The Conference, which was held in Geneva from 26 September to 2 October 1948, was the first of its kind. It was convened by the United Nations Economic and Social Council in response to the request of the Swiss Government.

The Conference was attended by representatives of 28 States, including all the members of the United Nations at that time. The Conference was held in the Hotel de Ville in Geneva.

The Conference adopted the Convention on the Protection of Persons and Property, which was signed by 23 States. The Convention is the first international instrument to deal with the protection of persons and property. It is a landmark in the history of international law.

The Convention is a comprehensive instrument which covers a wide range of subjects. It deals with the protection of persons and property in general, and also with specific aspects of the protection of persons and property.
