

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM

The University of the South Pacific is pleased to announce the commencement of the Bachelor of Business Administration Degree Program. This program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of business operations and management. The program is offered through the School of Distance Education, which provides a flexible learning environment for students who are unable to attend traditional on-campus classes. The program is accredited by the relevant educational authorities and is recognized internationally.

The program is a three-year degree program that is completed through a combination of self-paced study and live online sessions. Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours to graduate. The program is designed to be completed in three years, but students may complete it in less than three years if they are able to take more than one course at a time.

The program is designed to provide students with a strong foundation in business principles and practices. The program includes courses in accounting, finance, marketing, and human resources management. Students will also have the opportunity to complete a capstone project that will allow them to apply their knowledge and skills to a real-world business scenario.
