

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The conference is organized by the Middle East Studies Association (MESA) in cooperation with the American Studies Association (ASA) and the American Political Science Association (APSA).

The conference will be held at the University of California, San Diego, from November 15-19, 1995.

The conference will focus on the history of the Middle East from the late Ottoman period to the present. The main theme is the role of the Middle East in the development of the modern world. The conference will also address the impact of the Middle East on the United States and the world.

The conference will feature a variety of activities, including plenary sessions, panel discussions, and individual presentations. There will also be a social program and a book fair.

The conference is open to all who are interested in the history of the Middle East. There is no charge for registration, but there is a charge for the conference materials.

For more information, please contact the conference organizers at the Middle East Studies Association, 100 University Avenue, Suite 100, San Diego, CA 92161.

The conference is a unique opportunity for scholars and students to come together and discuss the history of the Middle East. We hope you will join us in San Diego.

The Middle East Studies Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to the study of the Middle East. We are proud to be part of the conference.
