

The diagram illustrates the subtraction problem $12 - 4$ using base ten blocks. The first row shows 12 units (two groups of six). The second row shows 8 units (one group of eight) and 4 units (one group of four), with a minus sign indicating removal. The third row shows the remaining 8 units (one group of eight).

000000 0000 0000000,'0 000000 000000000000 00000000 0 00000000 0 00
 00000000 0000000,'0 00000000 000000000 0000000000 00000000 0000000000
 0000000000 0000000 000 0000000,'0 0000000000000000 0000 0000000000 00000000
 00000000

00000000'0 00 00000000 00000000 000000000 0 0000000 000000000 00000000
 0 000000000 0000000 000 00 000 00000 000000000 000, 00000000
 00000000 000000 0000000'0 00000000 000000000000000 000000 00000000
 00000000000 0000000 000000000 0 000000 000000 000000 00000 000 000000000
 0000000000000 000000000

[illegible]

000000 0000000 0000000'0 000000 0000000 00000000000000 000000,
 000000000 0000000 000 000 0000 0000 000000 0000 000000000 000000
 000000000000 0000000 00000000 000000 0000 00:0000 0000000 0000 0000
 000 000 0000000 0 00000000 000000 000000000000000 0000 0000000 000000
 00000000 000000000 000000000 00000 000000 000000

[illegible]

□□□□□□, □□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□□
□□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□

□□□□□□□□□□□□□□