

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS AND PROPERTY

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, from 26 September to 1 October 1948. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the protection of persons and property, organized by the International Commission on the Protection of Persons and Property (ICPP).

The Conference was convened by the ICPP, which was established in 1947. The ICPP was created by the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in response to the need for international cooperation in the protection of persons and property.

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations.

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations.

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations.

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations.

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, at the Hotel des Nations. It was attended by representatives from 28 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Soviet Union, and the United Nations.