

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

The International Conference on the Protection of Children was held in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1985 to 1990. The Conference was organized by the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) and the International League of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (ILICR).

The Conference was the first of its kind and was a landmark event in the history of international child protection. It brought together representatives from over 100 countries to discuss and agree on a set of principles and standards for the protection of children.

The Conference resulted in the adoption of the Geneva Declaration on the Principles and Standards of the Protection of Children, which is now the basis for the work of UNICEF and other international organizations. The Declaration sets out the rights of children and the responsibilities of adults to protect them.

The Conference also resulted in the adoption of the Geneva Declaration on the Principles and Standards of the Protection of Children, which is now the basis for the work of UNICEF and other international organizations.
