Students, staff, and the University of the South Pacific are pleased to announce the launch of the new online learning platform (Canvas LMS) for the School of Distance Education. This platform will provide a more flexible and accessible learning environment for our students, allowing them to access course materials, participate in discussions, and submit assignments at any time and from any location. The new platform also offers enhanced communication tools for students and staff, making it easier to stay connected and supported throughout the learning journey.

The University of the South Pacific is committed to providing high-quality education and supporting our students' success. The new online learning platform is a key part of our ongoing efforts to enhance the learning experience and provide more flexible learning options. We encourage all students to explore the new platform and take full advantage of the resources and support available. We are confident that this new platform will contribute to a more successful and enjoyable learning experience for all our students.
