

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING

The purpose of this course is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of financial accounting principles and practices. This course covers the fundamental concepts of accounting, including the accounting cycle, journalizing, and the preparation of financial statements. Students will learn how to analyze and interpret financial data, and how to apply accounting principles in various business contexts. The course is designed to equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in a career in financial accounting or related fields.

Students will be able to identify and explain the accounting cycle, and to apply it in the preparation of financial statements. They will also be able to analyze and interpret financial data, and to apply accounting principles in various business contexts. The course is designed to equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in a career in financial accounting or related fields.

The course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of financial accounting principles and practices. This course covers the fundamental concepts of accounting, including the accounting cycle, journalizing, and the preparation of financial statements. Students will learn how to analyze and interpret financial data, and how to apply accounting principles in various business contexts. The course is designed to equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in a career in financial accounting or related fields.

