

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE LAW OF THE SEA

The International Conference on the Law of the Sea was convened in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1958 to 1960. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the law of the sea, which were convened by the International Law Commission (ILC) of the United Nations. The ILC was established in 1948 and is the primary organ of the United Nations responsible for the progressive development of international law and its codification.

The International Conference on the Law of the Sea was convened in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1958 to 1960. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the law of the sea, which were convened by the International Law Commission (ILC) of the United Nations. The ILC was established in 1948 and is the primary organ of the United Nations responsible for the progressive development of international law and its codification.

The International Conference on the Law of the Sea was convened in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1958 to 1960. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the law of the sea, which were convened by the International Law Commission (ILC) of the United Nations. The ILC was established in 1948 and is the primary organ of the United Nations responsible for the progressive development of international law and its codification.

The International Conference on the Law of the Sea was convened in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1958 to 1960. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the law of the sea, which were convened by the International Law Commission (ILC) of the United Nations. The ILC was established in 1948 and is the primary organ of the United Nations responsible for the progressive development of international law and its codification.

The International Conference on the Law of the Sea was convened in Geneva, Switzerland, from 1958 to 1960. It was the first of a series of international conferences on the law of the sea, which were convened by the International Law Commission (ILC) of the United Nations. The ILC was established in 1948 and is the primary organ of the United Nations responsible for the progressive development of international law and its codification.

□ □□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□
□□□□, □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□ □□ □□
□□□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□