

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD

The International Conference on the History of the World (ICHW) is a series of conferences organized by UNESCO, which began in 1974. The first conference was held in Mexico City, Mexico, and was followed by conferences in Seoul, South Korea (1984), Paris, France (1994), and Beijing, China (2004). The conferences are held every ten years and focus on different aspects of world history.

The ICHW conferences are organized by UNESCO, which is a specialized agency of the United Nations. The conferences are held in different parts of the world and focus on different aspects of world history. The first conference was held in Mexico City, Mexico, in 1974. The second conference was held in Seoul, South Korea, in 1984. The third conference was held in Paris, France, in 1994. The fourth conference was held in Beijing, China, in 2004.
