

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

The University of the South Pacific (USP) is a leading institution of higher learning in the Pacific region. The School of Distance Education (SDE) offers a wide range of programs, including the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) program. This program is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed in the business world.

The BBA program is a four-year undergraduate program that covers a variety of business disciplines, including accounting, finance, marketing, and human resources. Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours to graduate. The program is designed to be flexible, allowing students to study at their own pace and in their own location. This makes it an ideal choice for students who are working or have other commitments.

USP is committed to providing a high-quality education to all students. The SDE is supported by a dedicated staff of lecturers and administrative personnel who are committed to ensuring that students receive the best possible learning experience. The program is also supported by a range of resources, including textbooks, online materials, and a library of business journals and articles.

The BBA program is a challenging and rewarding experience that will prepare students for a successful career in business. The program is designed to be flexible, allowing students to study at their own pace and in their own location. This makes it an ideal choice for students who are working or have other commitments.
