

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS UNDER SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROTECTION

The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Mr. J. Pérez de Arce, in accordance with the request of the Security Council in its resolution S/RES/44/39 of 19 December 1989.

The Conference was attended by representatives of 100 States, 12 international organizations and 12 non-governmental organizations. The Conference was held in the Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland, under the chairmanship of Mr. J. Pérez de Arce, Secretary-General of the United Nations.

The Conference adopted the Declaration on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, which is contained in the annex to the present report. The Declaration sets out the principles and standards of protection for persons under special administrative protection, and provides a framework for the development of national legislation and international instruments in this field.

The Conference also adopted the Declaration on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, which is contained in the annex to the present report. The Declaration sets out the principles and standards of protection for persons under special administrative protection, and provides a framework for the development of national legislation and international instruments in this field. The Conference was held in the Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland, under the chairmanship of Mr. J. Pérez de Arce, Secretary-General of the United Nations.

The Conference was held in the Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland, under the chairmanship of Mr. J. Pérez de Arce, Secretary-General of the United Nations. The Conference was attended by representatives of 100 States, 12 international organizations and 12 non-governmental organizations. The Conference adopted the Declaration on the Protection of Persons Under Special Administrative Protection, which is contained in the annex to the present report.

