INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ECONOMIC REFORMS

The International Conference on Economic Reforms was held in Beijing, China, from October 15 to 19, 1995. The conference was organized by the Center for Economic Research and Capital Market Development, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, and the Institute of World Economics and International Relations, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. The conference was attended by representatives from various countries, including China, the United States, the United Kingdom, the World Bank, and the International Monetary Fund. The main theme of the conference was the role of economic reforms in the transition from a centrally planned economy to a market economy. The conference discussed the challenges and opportunities of economic reform, and the role of the government in the transition process.
