INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND CLIMATE ACTION

"We are here, we are here, we are here" is the theme of the International Conference on Sustainable Development and Climate Action, which will be held in London, UK, from 15-17 October 2023.

The conference (15-17 October) will bring together leading experts, policymakers, and industry leaders to discuss the latest developments in sustainable development and climate action. The conference is organized by the International Centre for Sustainable Development (ICSD), a leading international organization in the field of sustainable development.

The conference will feature a series of plenary sessions, workshops, and panel discussions. The plenary sessions will focus on the latest developments in sustainable development and climate action, while the workshops and panel discussions will provide an opportunity for participants to share their experiences and insights. The conference will also feature a series of side events, including a keynote address by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, a panel discussion on the role of the private sector in sustainable development, and a workshop on the role of youth in sustainable development.

The conference is a unique opportunity for participants to learn from the latest research and practice in sustainable development and climate action. It is also a chance for participants to network with other experts and policymakers in the field. The conference is open to all interested parties, and registration is free of charge.

For more information, please visit the conference website at www.icsd.org/conference. We look forward to your participation.
