INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The conference will be held in Jerusalem, Israel, from October 15-19, 1997. The theme of the conference is "The Middle East in the Twentieth Century: A History of Conflict and Change". The conference is organized by the Middle East Studies Association (MESA) and the American Studies Association (ASA).

The conference will feature a series of panels, workshops, and plenary sessions. The panels will focus on the political, social, and cultural history of the Middle East in the twentieth century. The workshops will provide an opportunity for scholars to present their research in a more informal setting. The plenary sessions will feature keynote addresses by leading scholars in the field. The conference is open to all who are interested in the history of the Middle East.

The conference is a unique opportunity for scholars to meet and discuss their research with colleagues from around the world. It is also a chance to learn about the latest developments in the field. The conference is a must-attend event for anyone who is interested in the history of the Middle East.
