

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER OFFICE OF GENERAL SERVICES

"The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty."

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher education. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial resources are used in a responsible and efficient manner. The Office of General Services is responsible for providing the University with the goods and services it needs to operate effectively. This report provides a detailed overview of the University's financial performance and the services provided by the Office of General Services over the past year. It includes information on the University's revenue, expenses, and assets, as well as a list of the goods and services provided by the Office of General Services. This report is intended to provide transparency and accountability to the public and to help the University improve its financial management and the services it provides to its students and faculty.

