Unemployment (or joblessness) occurs when people are without work and actively seeking work.” The Bureau of Labour Statistics (BLS) defines unemployment as “people who are without work, are available to accept a job, and are actively seeking work.” Unemployment is a condition that can affect anyone, regardless of age, gender, or race. It is a complex issue that can be caused by a variety of factors, including economic downturns, technological changes, and personal circumstances. Unemployment can have a significant impact on an individual's financial stability and mental health. It is important to understand the causes of unemployment and to seek out resources and support to help navigate this challenging situation.
