

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER STATE REPORT ON THE BUDGET 2013-14

The State Comptroller has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the State Budget for the fiscal year 2013-14. The budget is a comprehensive statement of the State's financial plan for the coming year. It sets forth the State's revenue and expenditure needs, and provides a framework for the State's financial operations. The budget is a key document in the State's financial management process, and it is essential for the State to have a clear and accurate budget for the coming year. The State Comptroller's office is committed to providing the State with the highest quality financial information and analysis, and to ensuring that the State's financial resources are used in the most effective and efficient manner possible.

The State Comptroller's office has reviewed the State Budget for the fiscal year 2013-14, and has identified several areas where the State's financial operations could be improved. These areas include the State's revenue and expenditure needs, the State's financial management process, and the State's financial reporting requirements. The State Comptroller's office is committed to working with the State's financial management agencies to identify and address these areas of concern, and to ensuring that the State's financial resources are used in the most effective and efficient manner possible.
